PEACHES
COMPANY.
At this season of the year when fresh fruit is unobtainable except at prohibitive prices, you can still procure from your grocer our tinned peaches which are as good as fresh gathered fruit and as cheap as ever. Although there are several so called "Tigre" Brands, ours is the only one bearing the "Tiger" upon it, and this we can guarantee as being of the very best obtainable fruit.
The process of canning renders these peaches more wholesome than fresh fruit, and they are specially recommended for children and invalids.
We do not consider it necessary to quote testimonials, but ask you to do us the favour to obtain the opinion of your medical man.

TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

London, 30th—The Chamber of Commerce has decided to convoke, for June next, a meeting of all the English Chambers of Commerce in the world. Invitations have been sent to those in England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland and the British Colonies, who will all be asked to send delegates.

Paris, 30th—The Siecle asserts it has confirmation of its news that the Orleanist Party, of which the Count de Paris is chief, is about to break up as a political party.

Madrid, 30th—The new tariff imposes prohibitive duties on alcohol and sugar, while reducing the duty on rails and other railway materials. The tariff will be published on January 1st. Parliament will open to-morrow.

Bombay, 30th—At a sitting of the National Indian Congress at Nawpore, it was resolved to call for Legishtive Chambers for India, the people to elect their representatives in same.

Rome, 31st—At an audience which the Pope gave to-day to the Diplomatic Corps, His Holiness asked the French Ambassador as to the health of President Carnot. The Ambassadors present say that the Pontiff looks in good health.

Vienna, 31st—Prince Alfred Montenrovoo is dead.

Calcutta, 31st—The victory of the English over the revolted tribes of Cashmere has left the road open to Cashmeriess (??)

Berlin, 31st—The Marquis Peñafel, Portuguese Minister here, has died of influenza.

New York, 31st—Telegrams from Washington say that the question with Chile, which appeared on the point of being arranged peacefully, has again assumed a serious aspect. The Cabinet held a meeting to-day to discuss the matter, and it is said that President Harrison has not changed his mind, but will insist on satisfaction from Chile. The question of arbitration was casually discussed at the same sitting.

Vienna, 31st—Horrible details have been received of the ten weeks' siege of Yemen by the Arabs. Awful cruelties were perpetrated. The city was bombarded every day and a dreadful famine prevailed in it. All who left it in search of food were driven back into it, horribly mutilated. There was a general massacre of prisoners on both sides.

Paris, 31st — Telegrams from St. Petersburg say that the conferences about admitting Russia to the Zollverein have commenced

Washington, 31st—Orders have been sent to the naval attaches at the Legations in Europe to watch the war preparations of Chile. The fastest torpedo boat in the U. S. navy is under sailing orders.

London, 30th.—An article in Truth says that it is evident that Canada will follow the same road as the United States and join the Great Republic, and the sooner the better, as it is inevitable.

(To the "Diario")

London, Dec. 30th—The Trent left Southampton to-day with £400,000 for B. Ayres, mostly remitted by the syndicate and the rest by private parties.

New York, Dec. 30th—The question with Chile is being amicably arranged.

THE NEW YEAR.

To-day we begin 1892, under auspices by no means flattering, and perhaps because we expect so little the year may prove more prosperous than many of its predecessors. The condition of the Argentine Republic has been unhealthy for the last 8 years, or even longer. When the first crash came, in January 1885, if Pres. Roca had not attempted to prop up the two State Banks that were unable to cash their notes the crisis would have passed over in six or twelve months. When the second "Krach" occurred, in June 1888, the country might still have been saved from a sea of troubles if the Free Banks and other rotten Companies were wound up. There was again a third smash in April 1891, when the National Bank and Provincial Bank collapsed in spite of Dr. Pellegrini's Loan, and even if those banks were put into liquidation, as well as the two Hypothecary Banks, we might soon have felt that the worst of the crisis was over.

Unfortunately the three opportunities for reform were allowed to slip away, and now we begin 1892 with another State Bank, a fresh issue of shinplasters and the currency depreciated 60 points more than at the beginning of 1891.

The financial situation is the graver feature of to-day; in fact it constitutes the chief evil of the time. In January 1891 the Finance Minister estimated the Customs-revenue for the year at 22 millions of gold dollars, but the returns published last month shew that it will hardly reach 14 millions, and that Dr. Lopez's estimates were 60 per cent too high. Therefore, notwithstanding the suspension of the debt in London, there must be a deficit, and yet Congress has recently ordered new war-vessels and raised the army to 11,000 men. If we turn our attention for a moment to the finances of the province of Buenos Ayres we find complete chaos, the deficits for the last two years reaching 24,000,000$, while the total revenue is under 10,000,000$. The city of Buenos Ayres is in a similar condition, the Lord Mayor insisting on another loan for 25 millions, to meet requirements.

Meantime the crisis goes on, and will not stop until the paper-money ceases to depreciate. If the finances were once settled we might get on without any more issues of shinplasters, but as matters now stand another issue is inevitable during the current year. There is a large section of the public in favor of liberal and repeated issues, regardless of consequences; unfortunately their policy always triumphs in the end.

But if we regard public interests from any other point of view the prospect is very cheering. Never at any previous date had the Republic so many acres under crops, never before was there such a wool-clip as this year's, never was the public health better. If we descend to minor points we find that we have more railways and telegraphs, a larger yield of wine and sugar, and a greater abundance of cows and sheep, than ever before. The population also is steadily increasing, having more than doubled since the census of 1869, and being now at least 4,000,000 souls.

In a word, we have multiplied reasons to thank Heaven for the many advantages that the country enjoys, while the only trouble that afflicts us is due to bad government, bad banking, bad faith and bad finances.

It only requires the Governmeut to turn over a new leaf in its financial policy, and to liquidate all the rotten banks and "bogus" companies, for the country to enter on an epoch of reparation. We have, however, no reason to hope for any such enlightened policy. President Pellegrini tells us the one thing needful is to cut down imports. With men of that stamp it is mere loss of time to discuss public interests.

GOLD PRICES FOR 7 YEARS.

In the table which we published yesterday the quotation for July (the month of the revolution) was incorrect. Yesterday's table, moreover, differs in the averages for 1891 from one we published a month ago, the averages in yesterday's being made from the sum of the various days in each month. In the subjoined table we have copied that issued by the Bolsa in June 1890 for 5½ years, and taken the remaining 18 months from our own On 'Change column.

The following table shews the highest, lowest, and average prices for each month, of 100 gold dollars, since January 1885, when the Banks stopped specie payments:—

OUR LONDON LETTER.

GENERAL QUESTIONS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Nov. 28th.

The Tories have had the field nearly to themselves this week and have made good use of it. Toryism is now a great word and represents a formidable power. It includes all who are "in it" and mean to remain there; all who have risen in life or who were born with a silver spoon in their mouths—the Duke of Westminster, Lord Hartington, Mr. Chamberlain, Sir Henry James and young Mr. Smith. When Mr. Chamberlain renounced the Liberals in these words, "I neither look for nor desire reunion;" he was seated between two peeresses, the Marchioness of Salisbury and Lady Windsor. As the brilliant company, scented like an Eastern garden, rose to cheer his words, he must have felt already one of them—a belted Earl. Hail! Baron Highbury, Earl of Screws. Society called "puss puss," and the sleek Radical, the able politician, cute man of business, lay purring in its lap. It is fair to Mr. Chamberlain to add that although the world understood the phrase quoted to mean a renunciation of faith, he has since explained to an interviewer that he did not mean that he had renounced the Liberal party, neither did he mean now that were Home Rule out of the case, he would rejoin the Liberal party, so long as it included nihilists and a Mr. Labouchere in England and rebels in Ireland. He says that were a position offered to him in the Conservative Government he would not accept. This certainly changes the aspect of affairs, but it does not make it more intelligible. In fact, however we may employ party names and attempt, like Mr. Chamberlain, to define our own particular position, there is a confusion in British party politics that denotes a general change of front and an advance in a new direction that neither Mr. Chamberlain nor Mr. Gladstone, nor a general election, whatever be its result, will be able to avert. The School Board elections have just ended in a triumph for the Parsons and the Moderates, and it is quite fair to say that the defeat of the School Board Progressists is a defeat to a certain extent of the Liberal party, although the School Board elections turned only on the question of rates, that is of economy. The Progressists, perhaps too impatiently, pushed their educational fads before settling the important question of equalising the rates and increasing the School Board revenue by levying a larger share of the rates upon properly holders, such as the Duke of Westminster and the Duke of Bedford. Those who are interested in London Schoolboard matters will find in this week's Graphic a very interesting and temperate article—with portrait—by the Revd. Mr. Diggles, who has so far identified himself with the cause of economy and denominational schools that the triumphant party are called "Diggleites." Mr. Diggles looks a determined little priest, of militant, not to say pugilistic order—and is no doubt a formidable fighter and clever administrator. The revenue of the educational department is now the revenue of a kingdom, and almost equals that of the Argentine Republic, and is nearly as heavily charged with debt.

Reverting to general politics and the Conservative campaign, the confusion that exists may be gauged by the fact that while Lord Salisbury is expatiating at Birmingham on the merits of free trade, the Union Conference itself, which he delighted to honour with his presence at a banquet only, have passed resolutions that are undisguisedly protectionist. There was a certain diplomacy in Lord Salisbury's handling of free trade. He seemed to say: of course it is a very good thing, but I can do nothing for agricultural depression in England as long as I am bound by it, and cannot retaliate against the increasing severity of foreign tariffs; but I tell you what I will do; I will give you Village Councils; although I know they will have nothing to do; and I will extend the allotment Act; and hang it, if that won't do, I will introduce the Ashbourne (Ireland) Act into England. That will increase the attractions of rural districts, increase the rural population and the Conservative interest, and then—if you are strong enough, you can do what you like about free trade, if you will only leave me at the head of foreign affairs, which is the true coin of vantage for the statesman who has to combat, not the Labouchères, the Hyndmans and Joseph Arches of this place, but the democracy of the world. Such, in the main, is Lord Salisbury's bid for Hodge's vote and against the Newcastle programme—"that bag of tricks that inexhaustible hat," as Mr. Chamberlain called it. I for one confess it is a bag of tricks, and that neither Mr. Gladstone, nor Mr. Morley, nor Sir William Harcourt either likes the tricks or knows how to perform one of them. When Lord Salisbury got to what he called "the bottom of the sack" he seemed to steal a glimpse of the real conjurer, Mr. Schnadhorst. That is it. He, like Chamberlain among the Tories, is the indicator of low water mark; and there may be a lower depth still. We are all tobboganning; and who knows what is at the bottom of the sack?

Mr. Morley yesterday delivered a well argued speech at Northampton in answer to Lord Salisbury and Mr. Chamberlain; but, as the Times says, "it was feeble." So it was, to vulgar notions of a political speech. Morley wants fire. He will never make a political leader. I don't see my way a bit through the coming general election.

In financial matters I have nothing to say this Saturday. What is said by the Economist on Argentine Railways is mere comment on your own figures, which both in respect to railways and the budget have been largely quoted. The South American Journal, I see, takes you to task in regard to your estimate of the relative status of some of the Argentine lines. It also gives a fair report of the London and River Plate Bank annual meeting and the declaration of a dividend equal to 10 per cent per annum, which ought to send up the shares under the existing unfavourable circumstances on your side. The Times announces that the agreement made by the Uruguay bondholders with Dr. Ellauri has been just ratified, the ratification confirming the clause in regard to the setting apart of Customs dues for the service of the debt. The city editor of the Times takes the opportunity of paying a tribute of praise to Sir Edward Thornton. In default of Argentine financial news from London, your readers may be interested in the enclosed article from the Financial News on the Manchester Ship Canal, which seems to be in rather a bad way.

There has been still another little bank failure in Germany, and a consequent arrest, but it has been explained to us that most of the so-called bankers are merely brokers, and commercially insignificant. This is negatively confirmed by what I see to-day in the Berlin letters in both the Statist and the Economist, in which no notice is taken of the failures.

I leave your Paris correspondent to tell you all about the late Lord Lytton. I have only to say that as a literary man he died in harness. Lady Lytton was leisurely taking off her hat and mantle in an adjoining room, the valet was searching for something Lady Lytton had asked for, and he himself was writing poetry, the brain being stimulated by the morphine he had taken to relieve the pain in the loins occasioned by an affection of the bladder. When Lord Lytton died he was finishing a line of his verses. A post mortem examination proves his medical adviser's diognosis to have been correct. The bladder complaint was nearly well; and he had no heart complaint, but he died from a clot in the heart that suddenly disturbed the blood circulation. The body of the deceased nobleman comes over to-night to Knebworth for burial. The French Government, artists and literary world have joined in paying the sincerest honors to a man who, independently of his general amiability and fondness of artistic France, was looked upon by Frenchmen as the most French of Englishmen.

Mr. Smithers after making a good defence which will be repeated in detail on his trial, has, as you will know, been duly committed.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Dec. 31.

The Liquidating Committee of the English Bank have decided to auction off all the properties belonging to said bank. The properties are to be sold for 25 per cent cash and the rest in two months without interest, in English Bank certificates.

The sons of the famous Leandro Alem are issuing invitations for a funeral service to take place on Jan. 2, in Buenos Ayres.

The papers are full of the Parahiba yellow fever case. One paper states that there are four cases, and that during the voyage the captain had four corpses thrown overboard. When the passengers were sent to the lazzareto one of the cases, that of Eliza Davison, aged 22, German, 1st class passenger, proved fatal. When the port-doctor visited the steamer the captain declared that there was gastric fever on board. It is stated that the captain was convinced it was gastric fever. The post-mortem examination of the body of the abovementioned lady proves, however, the case to have been unquestionably yellow fever.

The Health Board here are furious with the Argentine Health Board, who are furious with the Montevidean Health Board for having allowed the vessel Queen of the Bay to leave Montevideo with a clean bill.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

In regard to the Cordoba floods we are indebted to the Post-Master-General for the following telegram:

Villa Maria, Dec. 30.

On the 27th. the Rio Tercero overflowed for the fourth time, the waters reaching the town and completely flooding the neighboring settlement of Villa Nueva. Although the water is three feet deep, here the damage caused is not much, but in Villa Nueva the water reached a height of 6 feet, and the loss in property is tremendous. The inhabitants fled from the flooded town to the neighboring hills. Some were housed in the wagons of the Rufino Railway. About two hundred houses have been destroyed by the inundation. Not a single life was lost. Governor Garzon came to visit the inundated districts. Telegraph-posts are floating about in all directions.

We are indebted to the Postmaster General for another item of provincial news, namely: the good people of Rafaela Colony in Santa Fe have advanced the money for a line of telegraph from Pilar to Susana and Rafaela. The line will be inaugurated next month.

Poor Rosario is in a terrible way at present. First of all, that spontaneous brute, as Dr. Albarracin calls the public, is very much put out by this appellation and considers itself "bullied" by the indignant, indefatigable and irrepressible chairman of the S. P. C. A., and in the next place there are false bank-notes in circulation. The false notes are fifty dollar ones. Then the river is falling, and a new political newspaper has been started. Misfortunes come not single spies. In the meantime, like the true, generous-hearted, easy-going people that they undoubtedly are, the inhabitants are subscribing for the relief of the sufferers by the Cordoba floods, while the local railways have offered to carry clothing and provisions gratis for said sufferers.

Telegrams from San Juan announce the arrival of Dr. Alem in that city on a political tour. The San Juaninos turned out in great numbers to welcome him. The eloquent doctor addressed the admiring multitude and stated that the provincial atmosphere had completely revived him; and the provincial atmosphere, he hoped, would effect throughout the country, as it had caused in him, a radical change. This mild political pun the good San Juaninos, who are described by that witty deputy, General Mansilla, as the Scotchmen of the Plate, did not see at all. There are two things which the San Juanino cannot understand: one is a pun and the other a Municipality. The San Juaninos used their understandings with a vengeance with the Municipality, which was ignominously "kicked out" some time ago.

"Alienis profusus"—one of those terse expressions with which old Sallust sketched the famous Roman conspirator—is undoubtedly a qualification to which the Provincial Legislature of B. Ayres can lay claim. Its latest move is a vote of $10,000 for the sufferers by the Cordoba floods. $10,000! Enough to relieve half a dozen Villa Marias, and that at a moment when the Province itself is "in low water," when all the Provincial ministers are huddled together in one building, to avoid the cost of porters and "changadores", when the Provincial Bank and the Mortgage Bank are smashed up, when the service on the Cedulas—the quondam support of hundreds of widows and orphans—is suspended, when—but we should never end if we were to detail the provincial condition of bankruptcy. $10,000! Why, it would have been very much better to have voted the sum for the more terrible cases of distress caused by the suspension of the Cedula-service, all the more so, since the Rosario and Cordoba subscriptions amply suffice for the relief of the sufferers by the floods. The Legislature, we presume, will have to put a tax on bread or "puchero" to raise the $10,000.

LADIES LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Paris, Nov. 23rd.

I was spending an evening recently with some friends, when the subject of conversation drifted into the learning of modern languages. A lady present stated, nothing conduces so much to acquire a living language as private theatricals. She pointed to some young ladies present as evidence of her theory. Seeing I was doubtful, she asked would I like the proof. Accepted; after two young ladies had ceased singing, she called them over, and with that delightful readiness and frankness so natural to the French, the room was arranged at once for their dialogue in English. They gave a choice from "The School for Scandal" or the "Twelfth Night;" a compromise was made by accepting the first and exacting the second, but on condition that a monologue in German was to follow, from Schiller's "Marie Stuart." The execution was very brilliant, and later, the ladies' conversation in these two tongues was correct and devoid of that breading down fear so general to school-taught linguists. If I mistake not, that was the way Marie Antoinette learned French, and so well that she forgether native German, and though later supplied with professors of the latter language, she never re-acquired it.

Madame Carnot has returned from her holidays at Fontainebleau, where she passed her girlhood, to the Elysée. She came several times to Paris to superintend the domestic arrangements of the palace, for she is above all a lady that looks after her own house; her thrifty habits enable her to discharge all her hostess duties liberally, and without any extravagance she never lets down the presiding in point of hospitality, in donations to charities, and pecuniarily patronizing public amusements. If she and her husband spend their last franc of official income, they shew the example of not incurring a centime of debt. I am told Madame Carnot amuses herself forming an album of all the political cartoons and skits of which her husband is the subject, and whose poker stiffness of carriage and invariable black cloth costume lend so well to harmless caricature. Madame Dosne, the mother-in-law of Thiers, was a "collectionneuse" in the same sense for her distinguished son-in-law. Madame Carnot has inaugurated the wholesome plan, due to her Anglo-Saxon blood, of encouraging young men to travel—not so much on the Continent, as round the world after quitting college. The narrowness and shrinkage of the young French mind is due to their stay-at homeness, till they become infatuated with the idea that the universe is comprised by the Paris boulevards. They ignore the mightier cities than Paris that exist elsewhere and tenanted by advanced peoples. The French who have travelled appear to be quite a different race from their home-locked-up countrymen. In sending her son to join some of his chums to graduate as globe-trotters, Madame Carnot sets not only a motherly, but a patriotic example.

The Grand Duchess Paul of Russia is deeply regretted in Parisian society. On her marriage French ladies sept her a valuable souvenir; this will explain why they are now sending an address of sympathy to her mother, the Queen of Greece, and to her aunt, who is also her sister-in-law, the Empress of Russia. The Grand Duchess died "en couches" at 21 years of age; her husband is inconsolable, as the union was truly a love match. The deceased leaves a daughter 19 months old. French doctors state that the august patient could not have received due medical care. At the Russian Court she was likened to the Princess Henrietta, whose untimely decease Bossuet deplored in a peroration that will never die, and over whose loss Louis XIV. wept—the only time he ever indulged in "natural tears".

There is a clever drawing-room man now in demand, who professes to divine character on a new method. It supersedes skull-bump indications, lines on the palms of the hands, expression of the features, the shape of the finger-nails, thought-reading, penmanship, &c. The "eureka" consists in the number, but, above all, in the strength of the pulsations. If I mistake not, that court fortune-teller, Madame Lenormand, whom Napoleon I. always consulted when undertaking a campaign, made the great man's heart-beats an element in her necromancy. His niece, the present Princesse Mathilde, relates that her uncle's heart beat so slowly that it could hardly be heard on applying the ear to his chest.

Cloth of all shades will be the fashionable material this winter and striped limousine promises to again become a favorite. Shades of blue, green, mastic, otter etc. will be the colors in vogue for town dresses and white and cream for evening toilettes, the latter garnished round the neck with ostrich feathers. Sea blue and deep as well as a dark reddish brown are the dominant tints for general wear. For bridal dresses there is a tendency to make these harmonize with the bride's bouquet.

The princess shape robe is very general; really this form is to be recommended for carriages and garden parties; in the street it trails, has a slatternly look, necessitates clutching up by the hand. No wonder, the Sanitary Board of Vienna accuses the sweeping skirt of stirring up microbes. Demi-trains are surely not unstylish. Jupes continue to be more and more in the form of an umbrella. Except for ball toilettes, paniers have no chance of resuscitation where light materials, such as tulle, are employed; brocade for elderly ladies. For house dresses, the Russian blouse has admirers.

The sailor's hat, but in felt, promises to be the favorite shape during winter; the crown is a little lower, more of the plate-flatness. It is modestly trimmed with satin or velvet, with bows in same material in front, a tiny plume of feathers waves in front, which is called a "Czarewitch"; other trimming is a ruche of ribbon. The lophophore toque, with its small red and green feathers, is reappearing. Flowers are discarded for hat-trimmings, and there is a return to crimp feathers and wings.

Jackets maintain their ground: are made long, short, open or close-fitting, according to fancy; very rich material is employed to make them and they are embroidered with beads, otter plush, or fur. The large silk mantle is general: it helps to pass off demi-season robes. Stockings are black, gloves bright color.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The following table, which we have compiled from official sources, shows the dates of commencement and expiry of the railway, guarantees as well as the amount paid as guarantee up to date:—

From the foregoing it will be seen that the State has already paid over 16 million gold dollars to the guaranteed railways and owes still $79,292,284 gold. Not one of the railways has yet reimbursed the State one cent.

During the year 1891 no less than 1208 miles of railway were opened to traffic, including 382 miles of guaranteed lines. The railway companies laid before Government 472 plans, examined and duly approved by the Inspector-General, and the contracts for the following railways were signed:—1, Carlota to Rio 4°; 2, Rosario to Lincoln, Pigué and General Acha; 3, Parana to Monte Caseros: 4, Tinogasta to Chile; 5, Plaza Constitucion to Arroyo Morales; 6, Jujuy to Bolivia; 7, Zagate to the Boca; 8, Campana to Pilar; and 9, Chilecito to Famatina.

During the year the inspector-General inspected the following number of miles:—

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We wish everybody who has ever read a line of the STANDARD and everybody who has n't a Happy New Year. We forgot to call attention to the Summary on our fourth page yesterday. Those who may have missed it will find it republished in our Packet Edition on Sunday next.

We thank J. G. W. for $50 for the Rowsell Fund.

They have some more yellow fever cases on board a steamer at Montevideo. Here the H. B. magnates have changed their minds and given another name to the two cases on board the Queen of the Bay. Rubbish!

Our heart expanded yesterday under the mellowing influence of the kind N. Y. G. sent to us by the leading firm of Aug. C. Linck and Co. Cigars half a foot long and worth $5 a piece, supplemented with a big box of the finest Katsow Congou that the Flowery Land has ever produced, is no ordinary testimony of friendly New Year's wishes, which we beg to reciprocate in the fullest manner.

Another N.Y.G! Mr. José Alvo, manager of the Bieklert Brewery Company, has our best wishes for success to self and Company in 1892, and we have already drunk his health in the foaming nectar from his brewery which he sent us yesterday.

"The cry is still, they come." A case of the world-famed "Log Cabin" tobacco, made by Lambert and Butler, sent to us by Messrs. Mackern and Shine. We'll smoke it to their health and prosperity with the new book stall which they open to-day in the Mercedes station on the Western Railway.

We take off our hat to our friend Peuser, thank him for his Guia for this month, and wish him a Jolly New Year. His Guia has now a circulation of 20,000 monthly.

The Lord Mayor laid the foundation-stone of the new Town Hall in Plaza Victoria yesterday. It was a very one-horse, crisis-tinged ceremony, and looked on by the spectators as a feeble joke; as not even Zadkiel can tell where the cash to build the new T. H. is to come from—unless it be from the printing press.

We beg to call the attention of our readers in the West of the province to the series of concerts in Mercedes, Lujan, Moron and other camp towns, which will begin at Mercedes on the 6th inst. Mrs. Cooke, pupil of Herz & Thalberg, has been a year amongst us and has fully maintained the reputation she brought both as performer and teacher; and we are glad to congratulate her on her success and trust her Holiday Concerts will be well attended. Herr R. Homeyer, the violiuist who accompanies her, has won his laurels in Russia and Brazil, and the programme we have seen is varied and excellent. Letters respecting engagements for the New Year may be addressed to Mrs. Cooke, at Calle Ecuador 1363 (altos).

The English Dairy Farm at San Martin, on the Rosario Railway, is a New Year's blessing to the numerous English residents there, as it promises to supply them with the freshest and best of milk, butter, cream, eggs, fowl, ducks, turkeys, geese, rabbits, fruits and vegetables. It also delivers daily a great quantity in the Capital and elsewhere

An esteemed contemporary draws attention to the pleasing fact that fires and suicides, generally so numerous here at the end of each year, are conspicuous by their absence this season. "Gracias a Dios."

"Anibal Latino's" vivid description in yesterday's Nacion of the horrors of the expected great war in Europe is only too true a forecast of the Titanic struggle; not a bit over-coloured.

The popular Uruguayan Minister, Dr. Frias, has invited all his brothers in diplomacy to a pic-nic at the Tigre on Monday next.

The Argentine horse is now known in old Dublin. Forty two equine emigrants from the Pampas were sold in the Irish capital last month at from £ 12 to £ 40 each.

A Lecturer, discoursing on the subject of "Health," inquired:— "What use can a man make of his time while waiting for a doctor?" Before he could begin his answer to his own inquiry, some one in the audience cried out—"He can make his will".

Bobby struggled with the problem for an hour, and then presented for his mother's inspection the following truthful but unconventional effusion: "Mr. Robert Carhart declines with pleasure Miss Bessie Smith's invitation for the 14th, and thanks her extremely for having given him the opportunity for doing so."

The party who on the 29th inst. asked for and received a letter addressed to our care, for Miss A. H. Brown, would confer a favour by calling on us, or returning the letter.

We are requested to state that there will be no Evening Service at S. Peter's Church, Flores, on Sunday next. The Rev. S. F. Handcock, M. A., late Curate of St. John's, will officiate at the Morning Service, in the absence of the Vicar.

The fashionable parade in Calle Florida on Wednesday night last was something stupendous. Carriages were excluded, from Calle Alsina to Corrientes, and the stream of beauty, wealth and fashion flowed backwards and forwards on the wooden pavement, interrupted only by the passing of the tram cars going east and west. It was really a charming sight. The shops were dazzling with light and costly wares, but buyers were not numerous.

Won't there be fun! The prophetic instinct of the Chief of Police, Dr. Donovan, warns him that the new tramway rule about 'boletos,' in force from to-day, will lead to fits and "fites" between the public and the guards and inspectors; so he intends, they say, to order his constables not to interfere on either side. Dr. Donovan evidently shares our already expressed opinion as to the increased liveliness in tramway matters which is certain to result from the new rules. If all the companies issue proper card tickets, like the C.B.A., the new rule may work; but the public will not even try to keep flimsy paper "boletos" torn in halves.

The North-west wind yesterday was simply detestable, and we heard many limp subscribers declare that they would cheerfully susbscribe to get up a mild cyclone, by way of an agreeable change, if it could be managed.

We wish Messrs. Ostwald and Co. a Happy New Year, and thank them for their nice circular. Also Messrs H. Trager and Co., agents for the famous Fernet-Branca Bitters, whose Almanack is a veritable work of art, with a portrait of Columbus and the scene of his landing on this continued 400 years ago.

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.
According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.
Directions for use
One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed) JOHN KELLIE.
It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.

Thursday, Dec. 31.

We do not remember a duller yearly settlement than to-day's. There was a lack of excitement, an absence of activity, and a uniformity in price in gold and stocks that showed the very low ebb of speculation. The year has been one of the dullest on record; the market for the last twelve months has been floundering in a dead-and-alive speculation: the normal state of affairs has been one of winding-up and compounding with creditors, and the last act we see in a dull, dreary, burst-up settlement, in which differences are nil and the business to be wound up insignificant. There is still a spark of life in the gold market; people talk of syndicates, rings and pools, but all rolled together do not cast a faint shadow of the palmy business of former days. We believe an ordinary weekly settlement in 1889 was of more importance than to-day's yearly liquidation. The moral we can gather is that speculation, like State Banks, Cedulas, and joint-stock companies, is completely played out; and so much the better for the market and for the country at large.

Yet the Bolsa hall is more crowded than ever; the crush and squeeze at 3 o'clock was quite as great as in the active days of the boom. But there is this difference—whilst in former years the hall was too small for the motley crowd dabbling in gold and stocks, to-day the precincts are taxed to accommodate business men dealing in wool, hides, tallow, grain and corn. The bona-fide business of the country has revived, and the Bolsa to-day is no longer a gambling hell of reckless dealers or doomed gutter-snipes—it is the market-place for merchants and brokers engaged in the legitimate business of the country. We no longer see brokers rushing to and fro with bundles of worthless stocks or piles of gold cheques; those days are gone: the rush now is for exchange-bills and bills of lading. Thus some satisfaction may be gathered from the speculative dullness and the changed aspects of the market. Wools and cereals have supplanted the "conforme" and the "share."

The year closes with far better prospects than expected. A month ago the market dreaded on plausible grounds that the liquidation of the year would entail commercial disasters in many circles. Names were bandied about and a thorough collapse was apprehended in certain quarters, owing to the winding-up of banks, houses, &c. We see, however, that the liquidation has passed off smoothly, and the satisfaction that may be gathered from the fact may be traced to the proverbial indulgence or benevolence of creditors in these latitudes. The crisis has engendered innumerable compromises between debtors and creditors, and, taken all in all, the results, if not satisfactory to creditors, have been beneficial to the market at large. In very many cases the creditors have done well to compound, as foreclosures under present circumstances would be simply ruinous. We may say that all congratulate themselves that the finale of 1891 has not been so disastrous as apprehended in the dismal months of March, April, May and June.

For the last twelve months stocks have continued to fall steadily, until the majority of joint-stock companies are to-day quite out of the market. The only securities that have managed to maintain some kind of quotation are the National and Provincial Cedulas; the latter are quite nominal to-day, and owe a quotation to the ordinary process of cancelling mortgages; but for this they would not be quoted on the Bolsa black board. National Cedulas find a market, but they have fallen thirty points since 1890. As for Catalinas, Territoriales, National Bank shares, Constructors, "et hoc genus omne" the less said the better. In other words, speculation in stocks has died out and there are for the present no prospects of revival; millions upon millions are buried in this speculation in burst-up stocks; but whether from apathy or other causes, the victims, that is to say the investing public, have not the courage to demand redress or reparation at the hands of law; in other words the investing public of this country winks at the loose management that has brought on wholesale ruin.

Imports have fallen to their lowest ebb during the year owing to the terrible impoverishment of the masses, but exports have not increased as expected by the investment believers in the balance of trade theory. However, the paucity of imports has produced a certain impression on the exchange market, and for the last quarter of the year we have seen a heavy supply of bills and few takers: the result has been a steady rise in the rate, and but for the requirements of the Argentine Treasury, principally to meet the cost of armaments abroad and of port-works here, the exchange rate on London to-day would be at 50d. The exchange market, however, is so unsettled that gold is being speedily shipped from London, and this week's cablegrams announce that over half a million sovereigns are on the way out to Buenos Ayres. Speculators cherish the fond delusion that these gold consignments will put down the price of gold; this might take place under normal circumstances, but people are apt to forget that the increase in the issue of paper money and the threatening aspect of politics will set at nought all the beneficial effects cherished by gold speculators.

Only the other day when gold stood at 366% premium the whole market operated for a fall in gold the moment it was known that politics had improved and that our London friends were shipping sovereigns by the million to the Plate. That speculation drove gold down to 260 %, but since then the market has stubbornly resisted any further fall: there are hopes that the crop and clip and the gold shipments may yet put gold down to 200%, but as long as the new bank continues "relieving" this market with fresh issues of paper money there can be no doubt as to the finale: gold must necessarily leave the country and rise in value when compared with the value of paper money. This belief is now gaining ground in the market, not owing to the issue of paper money, but owing to a rooted belief that politics are in a critical condition. People forget the beneficial effect of paper money, but are keenly alive to the dangers of unsettled politics. We, for our part, think that the baneful influence of paper issues is more lasting than that of any political crisis.

Spite of the dismal political forebodings, the requirement of the year's liquidation and the so-called bullish syndicate, the gold premium did not advance much to-day, as for the last week the market is short of paper-money owing to the limited discounts of the banks. Over 23 thousand ounces changed hands this morning at the first ring; the price opened at 60.08 and closed at 60.70, say 273¾ premium. Sovereigns were dull and closed at 18.85, say 274 % premium.

La Plata Cedulas were again very weak. Provincial gold Cedulas A advanced to 208 gold, a rise of 3¼ points since last operation. Catalinas fell to 6.90. Spanish Bank rose 1 point to 87.

Exchange remained very dull to-day, but very firm at nominal rates, the same as yesterday. Discounts showed no improvement.

M. Martiz Meyer, the leading hide-broker, has moved his offices from Calle San Mart

This being settlement day there was no second ring. An auction was called at half past three and two hundred shares of the Catalinas Company were sold at 6.50 and 6.90.

Small amounts of exchange were passed this afternoon at 49 to 49¼ on London; 5.17½ francs on Paris and 4.16 marks on Hamburg. The feeling in the market was slightly weaker this afternoon.

Mr. Roberto Cano's house at the corner of Calles Cuyo and Suipacha, two-story, measuring 30¼ yards by 31, was sold sold to-day for 280,000$m/n.

Reports have been received by the Bureau of the American Republics to the effect that the experiment of using petroleum for fuel on the Oroya Railin Peru has been entirely successful. The trials were made at an altitude of 5,800 feet above the sea level, with two locomotives from the Rogers Works at Paterson, N.J. The oil used was a resicum oil differing from crude petroleum. In the trials the average consumption of oil was 38.55 pounds per mile, while with coal it was 79.30 pounds. The reports state that the Oroya road has decided, owing to the experiments, to use oil fuel on all its locomotives. Coal is very expensive down there, and in some districts oil is plentiful.

The wheat market ruled weaker to-day in view of arrivals since yesterday. The wool markets were heavy also.

The German steamer Hannover will arrive in port to-morrow with 38 passengers and 880 tons of cargo. She will enter the South Basin.

Messrs. Kelsey & Co. sold to-day at the Central Produce Market—
5000 kilos fine wool from Pergamino, at $8.60.
4000 do do Vedia 8.90.
3000 do do Venado Tuerto 8.40.
5000 do cross Lincoln, Arroyo Corto, at 12.

A friend who has just returned from Salto informs us that the principal feature of the environs of that locality is Mr. Harriague's vineyard, which covers five hundred acres and yields excellent wines. Mr. Harriague sells his wine at 40 dollars gold the "bordalesa," and the sale is so brisk that he has an agent in Montevideo to sell the wine. Mr. Harriague has, moreover, immense orange groves, olive plantations etc. In oranges and olives he realizes close on $ 1000 per annum. We want a few men like Mr. Harriague on this side of the river.

The Minister of the Interior has authorized Madero and Co. to pump the water out of the port works during their suspension.

The immigration returns for the year 1891 are—73,597 arrived ; 90,976 left the country, showing an adverse balance of 17,339.

The Custom House receipts to-day were as follows :—

The Minister of Finance has fixed the rate of gold at 350 for to-morrow for payment of Customs dues.

The London Economist of the 5th inst. comments as follows on the financial troubles in Australia :—

"The troubles resulting from the past land speculation in Australia are not at an end. This week there are reported from Melbourne the suspensions (1) of the Standard Bank of Australia, which has a London office, part of whose capital was subscribed here, and which holds a considerable amount of British deposits ; (2) of the Metropolitan Bank, Limited, a company with a subscribed capital of £650,000, a paid-up capital of £389,594, and a reserve of £100,000, while its deposits reach £385,000 ; (3) of the Melbourne Land Credit Bank, Limited (?we are in some doubt as to this title), with a capital stated at £250,000 ; and (4) of the City of Melbourne Building Society, an important concern, hitherto paying 10 per cent dividends, with deposits £360,640 ; while in addition some minor institutions have been compelled to close their doors. In each case it is stated that the suspension has been due to the withdrawals of deposits, and aggravated in most instances by the refusal of the leading bankers to make further advances to these institutions. The telegrams state that in some cases the stoppages are only temporary, until it is possible to affect arrangements with the depositors, and, as has been done in Sydney recently, it is not improbable such arrangements may be made where it is shown that the concerns are in reality solvent. But the depression in Melbourne and Sydney just now is very great, and is in some degree a reflection of the depression here. It will be something accomplished, however, if these colonies are taught not to rely so greatly upon the assistance of home capital. For a year and more that assistance has been comparatively meagre, and in the hardening process the weakly are succumbing. It is to be hoped that the weeding-out process will not have to be carried much further."

1735 MORENO 1735

between Solis & Entre Rios

I begs to inform the public that I have been instructed to sell at public auction

ON

at 12.30 noon

All the most valuable imported furniture of the splendid mansion

1735 Moreno

Catalogues with complete details of this grand sale will be ready three days before the auction, and may be obtained in the same house and in my offices

566--PIEDAD--566

The house will be on exhibition 3 days before the sale, so that all parties may have plenty of time to inspect and examine closely this extraordinary menage.

The furniture is all of great value and exceptional merit, and belongs to a very distinguished Argentine family leaving for Europe.

Indeed it would be impossible to describe the blending of chaste elegance, and the sumptuous and majestic 'tout ensemble' which reigns in this well ordered home.

The aristocracy, the ladies of our high society, connoisseurs, amateurs and all those who require really first-class furniture and other household belongings, should not fail to visit this luxurious home, if only to inspect its details.

The opportunity for a sight which combines so much richness and elegance is seldom met with.

All the household effects of whatever kind partake of the general character of richness and elegance.

In a future advertisement complete details will be given.

Grand dining room Renaissance. Bedroom Luis XV. Drawing room Luis XIV. Ante sala "Empress," and other bedrooms; mirrors, famous oil paintings, superb carpets, curtains, grand piano, chandeliers, etc., etc.

Parties requiring very valuable furniture ought to attend this sale, as I can guarantee that the occasion is an exceptional one and that the sale will be very liberal.

On Friday 8th January 1892 at 12.30 noon

CHARLES OLMI

Further details may be had in my offices

GONZALEZ. LEAL AND ALBERT.

Costly English furniture, made by the world-renowned firm of Maple and Co. of London; the most expensive and elegant lot of household furniture to be found in the country, and which was bought in London by the owner in person, who has now to sell it, as he is going back to England. Calle Esmeralda, No. 1022, on the 4th inst., at 1 p.m.

English furniture, while being the dearest made, owing to its elegance and solidity, is always the best, always in fashion, and never requires repair or change.

That which we now offer for sale will attract the attention of connoisseurs, as nothing like it has ever been sold here before.

The superb Smyrna carpets, silk curtains, etageres, mirrors e.c. etc. cost a fortune.

The furniture will be open to inspection from to-day, between the hours of noon and 10 p.m., until the auction begins on Monday next, the 4th inst., at 1 p.m. Even should it rain, the sale will be held.

The following is only a partial precis of the articles to be sold :—

DRAWING-ROOM : Piano by Steinway of New York ; perpendicular, of large size and splendid tone and tune. Suite in Genoa velvet, each piece of a different shape and material, and which will be sold separately. Smyrna carpets, large etageres, onyx and bronze columns, superb plush curtains with borders, fancy chairs, fine pictures, superb mirrors. Grand centre divan in Genoa velvet. Moquette carpet. Osler chandelier, etc. etc.

GRAND BEDROOM AND DRESSING-ROOM : Splendid solid suite in old oak, by Meple ; wardrobe with three doors, toilet table, wash-stand, bpestried chairs, towel rack solid bronze twin beds with spring mattrasses of hair, night tables, easy chair, curtains, Smyrna and Brussels Imperial carpets, centre tables, gas fittings, ornaments, pictures etc. Every piece of furniture in this room bears the stamp of Maple's good taste.

BACHELOR'S BEDROOM : This is another thoroughly English room all furnished in old oak, with solid bronze bed, wardrobes, wash-stands, curtains, carpets, gas fittings, sewing machine, pictures etc.

SUPERBLY FURNISHED DINING-ROOM with sideboard with mirror, carving table, monumental dining table, etagere with bevelled mirror, solid chairs covered with Morocco leather, crystal centre-pieces, Smyrna carpets in one piece, of great value. English glass ware, china ditto. Plated ware by Christofle, Reed, and Barton and Simpson. Splendid solid bronze chandelier with five jets. Knick-knacks of great taste and value. Special clock, the only one of its kind in the country, and suitable for the study of a scientific man, as it includes an almanack, barometer, thermometer, the movements of the moon : a mechanical marvel of great value, which cost £100 stg. in London ; fine pictures and a thousand other valuable ornaments.

Bedroom—Furnished in solid walnut with wardrobe, wash-stand, bed, hair spring mattrasses etc. Coupé to seat four people, made by "La Pariesence," corner of Santiago del Estero and Victoria, where it can be seen. It will be sold, after the furniture for whatever is offered. It has been barely four months in use, and is the best of its kind.

KITCHEN—Complete range, tables, gas etc.

PATIO AND HALL—Bronze lamps, coat racks, plants, etc. etc. etc.

There is no other furniture in the country equal to the above, or which is in like good taste, or so solid, or has cost so much.

Pay 1022 Esmeralda a visit before the auction.

For further particulars apply to the auctioneers.

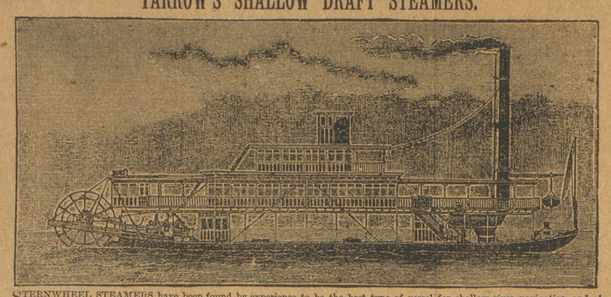
YARROW'S SHALLOW DRAFT STEAMERS.



STERNWHEEL STEAMERS have been found by experience to be the best type of vessel for shallow river navigation, and of these Messrs. Yarrow have constructed a large number of successful examples for all parts of the world.

Vessels on this system are constructed, when required, to draw as little as 6 inches.

Messrs. Yarrow lately built the sternwheelers "Mosquito" and "Herald" for the British Government, for service on the Zambesi.

They were constructed in floatable sections (capable of shipment), which were simply bolted together, avoiding thereby the costly and difficult process of rivetting up and launching.

For full particulars apply to—
YARROW & CO., Shipbuilders,
POPLAR, LONDON.

Estancia El Ombu
Ramallo, Oct. 21st, 1891

Messrs. Mackill, Murray & Co., Buenos Aires

Dear Sirs

I am more than satisfied with the result from dipping with Laidlaw's Tobacco Powder, and I may say that so is Mr. C. Quesada, owner of this estancia. I dipped the sheep (60.000) twice in February and since then have had hardly any work to do from hand-curing and the sheep are perfectly sound to-day. The cost of Dipping, including labour, was $0.2[illegible] cents per head or $26.50 per 1000 sheep. I have not tried it for hand curing, having a drum of 5 gallons on hand of another dip, and this has more than sufficed for all the hand-curing that has been necessary since February last.

I remain your sincerely
(signed) CHARLES R. KENYON.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
CHLORODYNE.
The original and only genuine

Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, late Army Medical Staff, to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, etc.

From Symes & Co', Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Lear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation the justly esteemed medecine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question wether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now forced to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent, we could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Sapasms, Crampas, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation dury many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breech of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists]

CAUTION,—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See the "Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelmning medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

CAUTION.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

DAY-SON & HEWITT'S Veterinary Medicines

Mr. Wm. Kemmis, the well-known breeder of fine stock, writes as follows:—
Estancia Las Rosas,
Ferro-Carril Central Argentino,
10th Jan., 1891.

I consider that no estancia which has any stock worth giving medicines to ought to be without these medicines.

The GASEOUS FLUID is the very best colic medicine I have ever seen given to horses, and the RED DRENCH for any illness after foaling or calving or lambing is, I consider splendid.

Yours truly,
(Signed) W. KEMMIS.
